A Little Bit Means A Lot

MILLBURY. Residents of the Linden Apartments gathered outside last Saturday to thank Millbury Board of Selectmen Chairman, Jude Cristo, for his help in having the sidewalks on either side of Pearl Street repaired and cleared of overgrown weeds. John Sharp, a resident of the apartments and former president of the Residents' Association, explained that for three years they had been trying to get the badly deteriorated sidewalk repaired. "The cement was all broken up," he said "and it was dangerous for the residents to walk over. We were afraid someone was going to fall and get hurt." The sidewalk in question was the only means by which tenants could get to their activities center.

On the other side of Pearl Street, the sidewalk was blocked by vegetation that had become overgrown, thus preventing residents from using it when walking to the supermarket on Providence Rd.

In expressing the residents' gratitude, Sharp explained that the association had been seeking a remedy to the condition for three years and that Cristo responded to their request after only one phone call.

Cristo in turn gave credit to Highway Surveyor, Joseph Chase, and his crew. "It is Joe Chase who deserves the credit," he said, "I called him and he had a crew from the Highway Department come down and patch the sidewalk and a crew from the Parks Department clear the brush from the sidewalk. He (Chase) did a great job coordinating the jobs."

Cristo added that Chase, the newly elected Highway Surveyor, and the Highway Department crew have been doing a fine job completing projects that have been neglected over the years. Cristo stated that he would like to see a comprehensive project undertaken to repair the sidewalks in Millbury, many of which are in a state of disrepair. "However," he added "our budget is only $40,000 for this year, and it's going to cost more than that to accomplish the task."

Ann Rano, President of the Association; Evelyn Lindberg, Vice-President, and Beatrice Despard were commended for their part in contacting Jude Cristo and following through with the project.

The residents are pleased with their new sidewalks and are grateful that they now have a safe access to the supermarket and to their activity center.

One "HECK" Of A Breakfast Planned in Purgatory

SUTTON. To hundreds of people in the area, the date, September 7, means only one thing: the Annual Labor Day Breakfast at Purgatory Chasm.

One of Sutton's most anticipated traditions, this year marks the 35th anniversary of this event which draws crowds, not only from surrounding towns, but from other states as well. Some fifteen hundred people attended last year's breakfast, and organizers of the event hope to surpass that number this year. Sponsored by the Steward Committee of the Sutton First Congregational Church, last year's event attracted nearly fifteen hundred hungry men, women and children.

According to Ellie Hutchinson, who is serving as this year's coordinator, "Each year more people join us on Labor Day and, once they experience a delicious breakfast in this most attractive location, they return year after year."

In order to prepare for any function accommodating such a large crowd, a great deal of advance work has to be done. Seventy volunteers are already hard at work preparing for the breakfast, and work and clean-up crews have been organizing and honing their techniques to move the large number of hungry patrons quickly through the lines. The volunteers, many of whom have been associated with the breakfast for years, have further refined their procedures to insure that no one has to wait long to be served. The breakfast will begin at 7:00 a.m. with continuous servings until 9:00 a.m. The menu will consist of a hearty "all you can eat" picnic-style breakfast of eggs, ham, pancakes, muffins, doughnuts, cereal, coffee, milk and juice. Tickets prices are a modest $3.00 for adults and $1.00 for children under 12.

The committee invites everyone "to come and join us and see our minister's chance of a lifetime...saying grace in Purgatory!" Good food, good fellowship, and lovely surroundings – there's no better way to end the summer. It's so much fun it's almost sinful.

We have it on reliable authority that many turn out for the Breakfast just to be waited on by Red Bedrosian.

School Committee Addresses Parents' Concerns

By Edward J. Cooney

The School Committee met Wednesday, August 19, for its last meeting before the opening of school on Tuesday, September 1st for teachers, and Wednesday, September 2nd for students. Some teachers will begin the school year with an in-service program on the development of the new Reading Mastery Program to be implemented this year. This program will seek to strengthen and enhance student reading skills. These meetings will take place before the scheduled opening of school.

The Committee finished its entire Agenda in a meeting that was probably the shortest of the past year.

– Chairman, Chester Hanratty, called the meeting to order at 7:30 p.m. by asking approval of both regular and executive minutes of the July 22nd meeting. These minutes were accepted on a 4–0 vote, with Committeeman Bruce Pease absent.

Hanratty read three letters of correspondence, one being a letter of commendation from Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kenary on the teaching performance of Linda Simulavich, a teacher at the Middle School.

Another letter, written by Donald Stockwell, expressed his appreciation of courtesies extended to him by the Committee's action which granted him an extended sick leave and approved his fellow custodian's donation of a portion of their sick leave time for his recuperation period.

A third letter was received from the Board of Selectmen and requested the appointment of a member of the school committee to a town committee which will develop a week-long program in celebration of Millbury's 175th anniversary. The School Committee took no action on the request but will discuss the matter at a future meeting.

– Next, Hanratty asked Dr. Sylvia to introduce the second item on the Agenda concerning a second reading of the State Department of Education's Policy on AIDS which the Committee is in the process of adopting for the Millbury school system.

Dr. Sylvia announced that he was presenting a copy of the Surgeon General's report on AIDS for consideration and review.

Hanratty then explained that the Committee is considering adopting the Commonwealth of Mass. Department of Human Services and Education Policy and the Department of Public Health's Policy which has been approved and recommended by the Mass. Association of School Committees. Hanratty stated, "These policies tell us of all aspects of the AIDS situation and how to deal with it."

Present at the meeting, were a group of concerned parents, teacher aides, and a few teachers in the pre-primary level at Elmwood Street School. The group was concerned about the entrance of a student to kindergarten at Elmwood who has been diagnosed as having the Hepatitis B virus.

Spokesperson, Jeanine Godbout, stated that parents were fearful and concerned for their own children entering kindergarten. She stated that an article which appeared in the July 27th edition of the Evening Gazette, naming the child and the mother, had caused increased concern.

The School Committee, at its July 22nd meeting, had approved the first reading of a policy and were told by Sylvia that a student was to enter the system at Elmwood Street School in September. Sylvia did not divulge the name at that time to the Committee or to the public. The Committee, at that meeting discussed the importance of confidentiality, as required by state law, in response to questions raised by two parents who were in attendance.

Sylvia assured all present that every effort would be made to provide materials and supplies in order to assure the safety and protection of all the children. "Mrs. Hedlund, the school nurse, will be working closely with all the staff. The child's mother assures me that there is no problem whatsoever. The youngster is a carrier. It is not easily contracted. I am not a physician, nor do I know all the details. Everything will be done to protect you and the youngsters."

Sylvia continued, "If there is any question, we will contact the primary care physician. If there is a necessity to delay the child's entrance, we will do so. That's all I can say at the present time."

Committeeman Alan Tuttle interjected that it was his opinion that, after having read the Policy, most questions were answered in the policy that the committee plans to adopt.

Mrs. Godbout asked if rubber gloves could be made available throughout the whole school and not just in that particular room.

Sylvia responded that he did not see a need for them in every room and he indicated that the school nurse would have a supply available for use when needed.

Hanratty assured all the groups that the Committee would make sure supplies and materials were available.

Committeeman Edward Wilczynski made reference to the article in the Gazette and stated that one item was not accurate concerning the ways that Hepatitis B is transmitted.

Some parents then stated that they should have been contacted and made aware of the situation. Sylvia explained that his office had not been notified until the last day of school in June. He told the parents that there is a planning day for teachers on September 1st and all available data would be presented. "No one will not be made aware of that situation," he said. "Mrs. Hedlund will be very well informed concerning the specifics of the youngster. I am not going to hold anything back in order to protect your health and the health of your children."

Mrs. Falkenberg, a member of the parents group, stated, "My concern is not to be like some communities, to ostracize a child who is already suffering. We need a comprehensive plan."

Chairman Hanratty stated that he wanted it to be known that the Committee did not release the name of the child. "Only Dr. Sylvia knew," he said.

Committee member Patricia Cooney stated that confidentiality should be emphasized, and also suggested that custodians use gloves when there was a need for cleaning up any accident that occurs so as not to cause undue attention and embarrassment to the child.

Dr. Sylvia stated that he would send a letter to the parents of children entering kindergarten.

It was suggested, by a parent, that people get in touch with their own pediatrician or physician about any questions that they might have.

Another parent expressed concern as to whether the B virus might be active or not active. "Who is going to be responsible?" she asked.

Mrs. Falkenberg suggested that a meeting might be held with doctors to help ease parent's concerns. "Every school system has to do this in some way or another. We can't be carried away with fear."

– Moving to Item 3 on the agenda, the Committee voted 4–0 to adopt a marking policy to begin this school year.

– Item 4 concerned several informational items presented by Dr. Sylvia.

– A discussion ensued on the Transportation Policy that is being reviewed by the School Committee, the Advisory Committee on Transportation, and Mr. Stickney, who was not present.

Dr. Sylvia told the Committee that his policy should be ready for discussion at the September 2nd meeting.

Jeanine Godbout and Paula Bunnevith, both members of the Transportation Advisory Committee, discussed the need for installing two-way radios on the school buses.

Hanratty stated that the present bus contractor, Mr. Lola, has no problem with the installation of two-way radios. Hanratty did note that financing was "still up in the air" and added that radios would not be in place when school opens.

Wilczynski stated, "We have agreed to put them in. We are looking for a way to finance. We will have complete control. It's a mater of time. We are going in that direction."

Hanratty stated that whether they are purchased by the Committee or by the bus contractor, the town would pay for them since it would be reflected in the contract.

Mrs. Cooney added that if Lola were to lose the bus contract the School Committee would have the radios available for another contractor.

Hanratty stated that the budget was tight and extremely limited. He took note of the fact that two teachers were hired at Elmwood Street, one at the Middle School, and also a new Curriculum Coordinator was hired. "It is hard to find the money. You will have to bear with us."

Mrs. Godbout then told the Committee that she was presenting them with a list of reasons why her committee (Transportation Advisory) should continue to function, as requested by Mrs. Cooney at a previous meeting.

Hanratty informed her that the request would be taken under advisement.

– Sylvia then informed the Committee that a draft of a facility use policy was being revised and would be submitted at a later meeting.

– A brief discussion developed when Sylvia informed the Committee that the gym floor had been completely sanded.

Mrs. Cooney asked if use of the gym would be available to students on the opening of school.

Sylvia replied that the students would have to temporarily use the outdoor facilities as the floor would not be completed or usable for two to five weeks into the school year. "I had hoped it would be done by now," said Sylvia.

– The Superintendent announced that a list of all teacher's certifications, as requested by Mr. Pease, was available for the Committee.

– Mrs. Jane Pojani then asked to speak to the issue concerning the gym floor. She stated that it was her understanding that the company hired to redo the gym floor did not have the necessary equipment or experience in lining a gym floor.

Sylvia responded that Mr. Garabedian (Athletic Director) was working with the company. "The job has to be done to our satisfaction. It is Mr. Garabedian's job to see that the job is done right."

Mrs. Pojani then stated, "This matter should have been looked into before awarding the bid as the second bidder was only different by $400. That bidder had equipment and the floor might have been done by now."

Hanratty replied that the company hired had good recommendations and had done other gym floors. "It will be done right or we won't pay him."

– Sylvia then informed the Committee that Paul Clancy had received a $17,272 grant for the Drop-Out Prevention Program at the High School. He suggested a letter of commendation be sent to Clancy.

Mrs. Cooney inquired if the program was to be expanded to include other grades at the High school, besides grade 9.

Sylvia relied that he had not read all the details of the proposal but that it was his understanding that a guidance and counseling component was added and that the program would be in more depth, with grade expansion included.

Sylvia said he would have Clancy available to give a report.

– The Millbury School Connection, a parents' group, requested that copies of the School Committee's agenda be made available for posting in public places in advance of meetings.

The Committee concurred, and will make the agendas available in advance of meetings.

– The Committee then voted 4–0 to approve an increase in the price of snacks from 75 cents per week to $1.00 per week.

It was suggested by Mrs. Cooney that other forms

Sylvia indicated that he would discuss the alternatives with the teachers and cafeteria managers.

– Under "Resignations and Leaves", the Committee approved on a 4-0 vote, the resignation of Marilyn Blanchard, Grade 3 teacher, who had previously received a leave of absence and an extension of her original leave. Mrs. Blanchard will be replaced by Valerie Anderson on Step 2 of the Bachelor's pay scale.

– The Committee approved (4-0) the request of Mrs. Wellens to withdraw from the Horace Mann Grant due to family responsibilities.

– Also approved 4-0, was the resignation of Kathleen Paige as teacher of Spanish. Mrs. Paige was hired last year and opted not to return as she is planning on furthering her education. Ms. Paige also stated she was hoping to teach Spanish full time in the future rather than having a split teaching assignment as she had this past year in Millbury.

– The Committee, 4-0, approved the extension of leave for Speech Therapist, Nancy Donnelly, until January. Dr. Sylvia stated that both he and Mrs. Stowe, Director of Special Services, were disappointed that her request had come on such short notice. According to Sylvia, it will be difficult to find a specialist for a half-year in a half-day position.

Mrs. Cooney then inquired if there had been an increased need for speech therapy and an increase in the number of students for speech.

In response to Sylvia's reply that there had been an increase, Mrs. Cooney suggested the possibility of hiring a full time person, year round. She also stated that the committee should take a good look at the past practice of hiring for half-time positions.

– Next, Sylvia requested authority from the Committee to proceed in a search for a Spanish teacher to replace Ms. Paige.

The Committee concurred.

– Wilczynski suggested that the newly installed speed bumps at the high school should be reviewed and possibly shaved an inch as he found the bumps too high when driving into the rear parking area.

Sylvia noted his request, which was in concurrence with the feelings of other committee members and several people in the audience.

– Nancy Tabor, an elementary teacher, requested reconsideration for changing her pay scale. She is to receive level 2 on the Bachelor's scale and wishes to receive level 3.

Hanratty requested that Sylvia obtain more specifics and information concerning Mrs. Tabor's request, for the next meeting.

– Hanratty, noting that the Agenda had been completed, asked for a motion to adjourn at 8:40 p.m. which was made and approved 4-0.

There's A Place For You In The Millbury School System

The Millbury School Connection is, as the name implies, a connection between the Millbury school system and the community it serves. This organization is inviting men and women to contribute their time and talents in a variety of ways. Some of these ways include working in the library, helping in the office, assisting classroom teachers, or demonstrating a special interest or talent.

Recently, Dr. Alfred Sylvia, Superintendent of Schools, called together a task force to review the overall curriculum. One of the recommendations to come out of that review was to establish an active volunteer program. The School Committee also greeted the idea with enthusiasm and gave their permission to begin in the Fall.

Parents of school children, senior citizens, members of the business community, or anyone who feels they have time and energy to contribute in some way are all needed for this program to succeed.

Our next meeting, rescheduled from August 24, will be held on August 31, at 7:00 p.m. at the Town Hall.

Share the joy of learning. Volunteer!

Program To Focus On "Family"

The Staff and Board of Directors of the Central Massachusetts Institute for Pastoral Counseling, Inc. have announced a new fall program which is open to both the general public and professional leadership. The major foci of the institute are upon the family and day-by-day stress factors that both challenge and threaten the family function, such as drug and alcohol abuse, incest, family violence, separation and divorce, sexual promiscuity automobile abuse, teenage suicide, etc. The program does not focus largely upon remedial concerns. It is a program developed to enable generally functioning families to operate better, to improve their communications and their decision making procedures, and to effectively negotiate through the maze of contemporary living.

Ms. Deborah Dutton, a licensed social worker, who resides in Sutton, has been appointed the Coordinator for the Family Life Project. This program will be initiated this season by two major events. The first will be held at 366 Greenwood Street for clergy and other professionals working with families on Friday, September 18, as an all-day workshop. The cost of this event is partially underwritten by the George and Sybil Fuller Foundation and the Stoddard Charitable Trust. Clergy from all over Central Massachusetts, a well as other religious and agency leaders, are invited to register for this all-day event. The second event is a free public lecture by Dr. Robert A. Dow, the Director of the Institute and the initiator of this project. This presentation will focus upon the nature of the family in our day, and will present options for developing a useful open system for family living. This lecture will be held at 366 Greenwood Street at 7:30 p.m. and will allow for informal discussion following the presentation with both Dr. Dow and Ms. Dutton.

A mini-series of parent training programs will be initiated the week following this lecture for those persons wishing to register to learn the kinds of skills essential to the process. Learning to actively listen, to respond helpfully to needs, to ask for what is essential to the effective functioning of the family, and to make useful decisions is largely the focus of this mini-workshop series to be held for four Thursday evenings.

A major project will be initiated by both local community congregations and schools for parents and teenagers. This project encourages clear, direct communication between parents and teenagers, beginning with the pre-teen, ages 9, 10, and 11 as well as ages 12 and up. Undergraduate college students fill out the professional team as this project gets underway. The actual length and depth of the project will be determined by both the sponsoring organization and the CMI team. Families wishing to become involved are urged to contact CMI as soon as possible.

Ms. Carol Halal, also of the CMI staff, will begin a woman's group in September in order to enable women to define their personal growth needs as well as define their goals for future development. The group begins September 21.

Each year, the CMI staff presents three Stress Management and Pain Reduction Training programs for adults. Persons seeking help from both physical and emotional pain, intense anxiety and/or panic attacks, or tension in the business, family or social context, are urged to register. This program begins September 22.

Groups for single adults and married couples are on-going at the Institute. Persons and couples wishing to develop both personal and relational strengths that enhance their daily living as well as bring support and meaning to their lives are invited to inquire at the Institute regarding participation.

About eye health

The following article is made available through the Public Health and Education Committee of the New England Ophthalmological Society.

A cataract is a clouding of the natural or crystalline lens of the eye which affects, at least to some extent, all people as they age. Rarely, children are born with cataracts due to either genetic abnormalities or infections in the course of pregnancy. Cataracts will advance to a stage requiring surgery in one of every 50 people over the age of sixty. Cataract surgery is the single most common operation performed on older patients. It is estimated that 500,000 cataract/implant operations will be done in the USA in the next twelve months. As the result of improvements in technology, cataract/implant surgery is now the safest and most successful eye surgery ever performed.

The only curative treatment for cataracts is to remove the clouded lens surgically. Once the clouded lens has been removed, light can again enter the eye unobstructed; however, without the natural lens, images transmitted by light cannot be focussed upon the retina. There are three ways currently available to substitute for the natural human lens. Lens substitutes include cataract eye glasses, contact lenses and implanted intraocular lenses (IOL). IOL's are plastic and are inserted in the eye at the time of cataract surgery. Of all the choices, implants provide the most natural vision. Contact lenses provide the next best lens substitute, but the care and handling of contact lenses can be burdensome to certain individuals especially those with arthritis. Cataract spectacles are the least satisfactory of all alternatives inasmuch as they are heavy and thick, magnify and distort vision, and thus require a significant period of adaptation. Another disadvantage of cataract glasses is that they generally cannot be worn unless both eyes have had cataract surgery. Although there may be many factors which determine the choice of a lens substitute, the many advances in the IOL design and insertion techniques are such that in most cases an implant is the logical first choice. Even if contact lenses or lens implants are chosen, it is important to realize that ordinary glasses may still be needed for certain activities.

Once cataracts have been diagnosed, timing for surgery depends upon the extent of visual impairment to that individual and the ophthalmologist's judgement as to expected improvement after surgery. Cataracts do not need to "ripen" (or reach a special level of advancement) as commonly thought. The patient is usually the best judge of how much a cataract is interfering with his way of life. Nonetheless, cataract surgery may not restore vision in eyes suffering from other problems such as an aging retina or advanced glaucoma.

Cataract surgery is now commonly performed on an outpatient basis. An overnight stay is not usually needed unless there are special considerations. Local anesthesia is used and the recovery period involves little pain. Continuing advances in the technique of cataract surgery promise a chance for better vision with less risk in a growing number of people worldwide.

On The Shelf

By Rosemary Wallos

While we don't advocate that you try to diagnose or cure your own medical problems, we do encourage you to learn all you can about your body. In an effort to help you do so, the Millbury Public Library offers a large collection of popular books on various aspects of personal health. Here's a sampling of some of the new books you'll find in this subject area.

DR. NAGLER'S BODY MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR BOOK by Willibald Nagler, M.D. and Irene von Estorff, M.D. This book is a complete guide for preventing and overcoming painful or disabling musculoskeletal conditions. The first section of this book is a guide to the physiatry method, one of the most successful medical approaches to preventing and relieving physical problems and their pain. The second part of this book is an A to Z guide to various musculoskeletal problems and effective exercises to help relieve pain associated with these problems. Musculoskeletal problems covered here include carpal tunnel syndrome, muscle spasms, osteoporosis, rheumatoid arthritis, runner's knee, slipped discs, tennis elbow, and many more. (613 NAG)

HOW TO BE YOUR OWN NUTRITIONIST by Stuart M. Berger, M.D. Stuart M. Berger is the author of the popular Immune Power Diet. Berger explains various aspects of good nutrition and the body. He explains how to decide what food to eat and the vitamins and nutrients you need based on age, sex, genes, life style, your stress and activity levels, and medical status.

THE COMPLETE BOOK OF CHILDREN'S ALLERGIES: A GUIDE FOR PARENTS by B. Robert Feldman, M.D. This book is designed to inform and educate parents on their children's allergies. Major types of allergies and specific recommendations are covered. Individual chapters are concerned with bronchial asthma, chronic rhinitis, hives and angioedema, insect stings, allergic reactions to drugs, skin allergy conditions and allergy conditions of the eye and ear. Methods of allergy testing are covered along with the types of medications available. Feldman also covers food sensitivity in this exhaustive book. (618.92 FEL)

THE SMOKER'S BOOK OF HEALTH by Tom Ferguson, M.D. This is for the person who "just can't quit". Ferguson outlines strategies to help keep smoker's healthier, and provides information to reduce the risks of smoking so that smokers can take control of the habit. (362.2)

MORE THAN JUST A PRETTY FACE by Thomas D. Rees, M.D. with Sylvia Simmons. Here's an in-depth look at how cosmetic surgery can improve your looks and ultimately your life. Major procedures in facial cosmetic surgery are covered here, including the facelift, eyelid surgery, nose operations, chin and jaw surgery, silicone and collagen injections, and hair transplants. Dr. Rees explains who makes a good candidate for each procedure, what happens before and after surgery and, finally, the psychological and physical benefits one can expect. (617 Rees)

TMJ SYNDROME by A. Richard Goldman, D.D.S., with Virginia McCullough. This is the first book that explains TMJ (Temporomandibular Joint Syndrome) in nontechnical language. This book explains what TMJ is and the diagnoses of the disorder. It provides much needed information to both the sufferers and their families. And, important to anyone trying to get their insurance company to cover treatments, Dr. Rees also provides information on costs and insurance coverage. (617.522 GOL)

THE NONTOXIC HOME by Debra Lynn Dadd. Find out how to protect yourself and your family from everyday toxins and health hazards found in the average "clean" home. With researchers linking harmless looking products to headaches, depression, sterility, cancer, and birth defects, it is important to become concerned about the safety of household products. THE NONTOXIC HOME is a consumer's guide to safe household products with advice on how to minimize dangers. (615.9)

MORE CHICKEN SOUP AND OTHER FOLK REMEDIES by Joan Wilen and Lydia Wilen. If you enjoyed the Wilsen's first book, CHICKEN SOUP AND OTHER FOLK REMEDIES, you'll want to read this one too. This is a new collection of natural, time-tested strategies for various ailments and conditions such as hangovers, indigestion, acne and vertigo. (615.8 WIL)

THE ESSENTIAL CURE TO PRESCRIPTION DRUGS, 1987, by James W. Long, M.D. This book provides detailed and comprehensive information on most prescription and nonprescription drugs used. This should provide all the information you need for safe drug use. (615 LON)

MEDICAL ACCESS by Richard Saul Wurman. This book is a layman's guide to modern medical tests, surgeries and institutions. It is a heavily illustrated book that is designed to de-mystify diagnostic tests and surgical procedures, and provides answers to questions concerning patients' rights and responsibilities, insurance, and costs. Millbury COA News

By Judith O'Connor

In 1988, the Town of Millbury will be celebrating its 175th Anniversary. We are starting now to make preparations for this historic occasion...parade, concerts, activities for the children, dance for the adults. If you can think of something you would like to see done for this party, please let us know. Call or drop us a line. We want your ideas. It would be nice to leave our children and grandchildren with pleasant memories of Millbury.

ATLANTIC CITY: All those going to Atlantic City on October 8th, 9th, and 10th are advised that the balance of their money is due by September 12th. Please stop by the COA office and pay and you will receive your final sheets and baggage tags.

NUTRITION PROGRAM: We have a lunch program Monday through Friday at noon at the senior center. Reservations can be made by calling or stopping by the COA office (865-9154) 24 hours in advance. The suggested donation is $1.25 per lunch and monthly menus are available.

A reminder: if you have made a luncheon reservation and find you can't come, you must call and cancel. Transportation is provided for lunch each day.

VOLUNTEERS URGENTLY NEEDED: Volunteers are needed to drive hot lunches to our frail elderly, around the lunch hour. Routes take approximately one hour and drivers are given $2.00 per day stipend and 23 cents per mile car allowance. If we do not get a couple of drivers, we will have to eliminate one route; this will effect eight to ten elderly people who need this all important service. Can you help? We need you! Call the COA office or stop by for more information.

LINE DANCING every Monday at 1:00 p.m. at the Senior Center. The cost if $1.00 and our instructor is Michael. Come and join this group. It's great exercise!

A REMINDER: We need Prince "proof of purchase" labels from any of the Prince family products. Drop-off points are the Senior Center, Town Hall, Library, and Sentry. Thank you in advance for your support.

SPOTLIGHT ON BUSINESS

TRIPPI'S tailors and dry cleaners

Bill Trippi, the owner of Trippi's Tailors and Dry Cleaners, located in the Southwest Plaza on Route 20 in Worcester, is a person who guarantees to keep you in "stitches". In every sense of the word, he is a "Sew, Sew" person. Bill, who grew up and was educated in Millbury, is keeping up a family tradition which began in 1922 and he is proud that he has chosen to follow a career that offers service to the community and fulfillment to his life.

The tailoring tradition began with Bill's grandfather who entered into a partnership with three other men. They ran TMD Tailors on Front Street in Worcester from 1922 to 1940. In 1940, his grandfather took over the business and renamed it Worcester Pant Co. Many may still recall its location on Front Street near what was the Family Theater.

In 1950, Bill's uncle, Frank, took over the operation and in 1965 renamed it Trippi's Men's Clothing. After he retired in 1975, Bill's cousins, Michael and Anthony, took over the business and continue the operation today on Rte. 9 in Shrewsbury. Bill is very appreciative of the support which he has received from his family. "My cousins have been very encouraging and send me a lot of their alteration business," he said.

Bill's father was also part of the tailoring tradition. In 1967, he began his own business, Trippi's Zipper Hospital, in the Stafford Hotel at Webster Square. This was the site of Bill's apprenticeship which culminated in his opening his own store. "My father has been an inspiration to me," Bill explained, "and a strong, positive role model. He is the person that is responsible for my being able to have my own store; I owe everything to him."

Bill began working for his father in the 60's, watching him and learning the trade at his elbow. The elder Trippi would give his son work to do, and slowly cultivated and refined the expertise which Bill presently enjoys. "My father had confidence in my abilities and would give me various things to do. Through this," he said, "I became familiar with the different machines and what they could do. He was a very kind and patient teacher." Bill's father still runs Trippi's Zipper Hospital from his new location at 1025 Main Street just a few doors up from his original location.

Bill Trippi lived in Millbury from 1969 to 1974. "I went to school in Millbury and played in the town's Pee Wee league. In 1974, I decided to go into the Navy and joined up for four years." Bill graduated from Sub School and spent a year as a Storekeeper aboard a sub. "After a year I decided it was not for me," he said, recalling the cramped conditions aboard the vessel. "I transferred to an oiler and spent the next three years travelling all over the South Pacific."

While he was at sea, his talent did not lie dormant. Once the officers and crew discovered his tailoring abilities, he found himself with a steady stream of uniforms to be altered. "I brought a machine on board and used to do quite a lot of work on board besides just uniforms. I was asked to make heavy canvas storm covers to protect the guns and bulkheads and these little jobs kept me in spending money."

When Bill was discharged from the Navy, he again continued to work with his father. In 1984, he saw a need to repair zippers on large articles like golf bags and suitcases. He happened to find an old foot pump sewing machine and began to learn the mechanics of its operation. This new found skill was added to his already extensive mastery of the trade.

Bill was now ready to open his own store and, after conferring with his wife Diane, he began a careful process of investigating and learning business techniques and additional skills which he would have to employ in his new venture. He attended a variety of seminars given by the Small Business Association and went through extensive training at the North East Fabricare Association where he received his certification with distinction.

Bill Trippi has now been in business less than a year, and all of the concerns and reservations that a new entrepreneur has have vanished. "I want to thank the residents of Millbury and Sutton," he said with absolute sincerity. "Most of the people who patronize my establishment are from the two towns. They are really pleasant people to do business with. They come and say it's so convenient to be able to drop their cleaning off on the way to work and be able to pick it up on their way home. What I really enjoy," he said, "are the number of people I grew up and went to school with who'll stop by."

It's not surprising that former acquaintances would want to stop in to his store because Bill Trippi is a truly personable individual whose sincere and easy manner is disarming. All of his customers are greeted in the same warm manner, and his desire to accommodate them is manifestly apparent. The personal attention he gives his customers, explaining what he can do and sometimes offering suggestions, makes his store distinct and inviting.

Though Bill Trippi is the inspiration and driving force, he is quick to give credit to those employees who service his customers. "I have a gentleman who has over forty years finishing experience (pressing) who is a major asset to me. He's taught me so much, not only how to do things but how to work more effectively. He's developed special techniques in finishing everything and has ways of cleaning and finishing large delicate items like wedding gowns and draperies that protect the items while giving better results. Sometimes it requires a little more work, but if the results are better and the customer is pleased, then it's all worth it."

Bill is a person of great pride – pride in his family and their traditions, pride in his ability to come up to their high standards, pride in his craft, and pride in his desire to give his clients the very best in service.
